

HB802A-80 Vapor Recovery Vent Valve

It is installed on the manhole cover or on the top of the tank .Exit end is connected with the rubber hose to the vapor recovery pipework.When the tank is loading and unloading , vapor vent valve control the vapor to come in or out of the tank, it is a very important component for the vapor recovery system.

Benefit and Features:

- 1.Aluminum surface is treated by oxidation.
- 2.The inner shaft accessories and springs are made of stainless steel 304.
- 3.It conforms to European standard with TTMA stud Flange